

Croatia

Finding a will in Croatia

~ Legal professionals, some questions/answers to assist you ~

→ When the existence of a will has been established, who has to be contacted to obtain information about its content?

Information on the content of a will is provided by the judicial commissioner, i.e. the notary tasked with opening the will by the court settling the succession.

Foreign courts can use mutual legal assistance to obtain a copy of the will.

→ Who is entitled to receive the information?

The information contained in the will, and a copy of the will itself, can be sent to public authorities, the heirs and any person granted or deprived of their rights under the terms of the will.

These questions and answers constitute a source of general information, up to date as of 1 January 2022. If you have a specific problem, please contact a notary. This practical guide was prepared by ARERT in collaboration with the European Commission and the Notaries of Europe.

Croatia

→ Is there a particular procedure to be followed? If so, which one?

For the information contained in the will, or a copy of the will itself, to be communicated, the will must have been opened in accordance with Croatian law.

→ By what means can the information be sent?

A certified copy of the will is sent by post.

*****

Important

These questions and answers constitute a source of general information, up to date as of 1 January 2022. If you have a specific problem, please contact a notary. This practical guide was prepared by ARERT in collaboration with the European Commission and the Notaries of Europe.